Thanks Martin. This is helpful. I have a call into Todd on Rec UAAs already (as you know). I will plan on also raising Pavillion with him and see if we can start working toward a meeting in July to discuss the palatability report.

The Wyoming Oil and Gas Conservation Commission (WOGCC) has made available the Pavillion Field Pits Review Final Report. The report is available on the WOGCC website (wogcc.state.wy.us) by following the Pavillion Working Group link.

The WOGCC is still preparing the response to comments for each of the public comments submitted and will make this available on the website once it is complete.

Please contact me if you have any questions.
